SHARING EXPERTISE

We are happy to invite you to "NutriTalks 2022 - B. Braun Nutrition Therapy – Improving life together". In cooperation with the Aesculap Academy, we have planned a very comprehensive Therapy Safety Training filled with interesting topics of the highest scientific level in the field of clinical nutrition.

PREFACE

In order to preserve, keep and strengthen our cooperation and our exchange, we are offering this virtual training on the topics of nutrition therapy in ICUs, Pharmacy Nutrition Compounding and Home Artificial Nutrition. Additionally, we will also look at nutritional support in specific clinical conditions and proteins and its clinical relevance.

Learn from key opinion leaders, our medical scientific affairs department and global product managers and get to know our attractive exhibition area in a modern digital environment.

To cover all time zones and to offer our customers flexibility, the event will be repeated in reverse order on the second day.
